AMERICAN AIRLINES CENTER

Dallas has set a new standard for sports and entertainment venues. With the best minds in architecture and entertainment, the city of Dallas and owners of the Dallas Stars and Dallas Mavericks have meticulously crafted the best sports facility in the country ... American Airlines Center.

And now we can say it boasts two world records! July 27, 2001 is a date etched in history. On that day American Airlines Center set two Guinness Book of World Records for the longest ribbon used in a ribbon cutting ceremony measured 3,308.9 meters (10,856 feet) and the most individuals to particpate in a ribbon cutting ceremony is 2,435.

And the awards didn't stop there, American Airlines Center was awarded Concert Industry Consortium's Best New Major Venue Award for 2001 by Pollstar Magazine. Other awards relative to the American Airlines Center include: Construction Manager/General Contractor were awarded the Excellence in Construction Award by the North Texas Chapter of Associated Builders and Contractors (ABC) and Texas Construction Best Projects of 2001 Judges' Award for the construction of the American Airlines Center.

The 840,000-square foot Dallas landmark completed in July, 2001 is setting the new standard for sports and entertainment venues. Designed by Dallas architect David M. Schwarz, the $420 million facility includes every modern convenience for fans of the Stars and Mavericks.

American Airlines Center has a capacity of 18,532 fans for hockey, an increase of approximately 1,500 fans over Reunion Arena. But the differences in overall space and technological advances make the Stars' new home light years ahead of other facilities.

While ice conditions have been difficult to maintain through Texas heat during seasons past, there is much improvement in American Airlines Center thanks to a few precautions taken during construction. There is a separate chiller system just for the slab, eight miles of one-inch pipe and 320 tons of refrigeration. The ice slab alone cost $1.2 million, and designers helped provide extra support by installing a 3,600-ton air-conditioning system and a dehumidification system that can extract 500 gallons of moisture per hour.

New technology also helps with quicker conversion between basketball and hockey thanks to the most sophisticated retractable seating system ever designed for a sports and entertainment venue. It's a patented design that allows conversion from an ice rink to a basketball or concert setting in less than three hours.

And of course, don't forget the digital signage. That starts with an 80,000-pound, eight-sided scoreboard with four video displays and screens set at a ratio to allow future advancements to high-definition television. Game presentation includes a 360-degree high-resolution matrix board located on the facing of the Platinum Level.
While viewing the impressive game presentation and better playing conditions, fans are also treated to more comfortable seating. There are 142 luxury suites at American Airlines Center and 1,600 club-level seats. The exclusive Platinum level also includes private conference centers and specialty food and drink bars.

American Airlines Center isn't just a state-of-the-art sports entertainment venue. With its numerous original art designs and slight personal touches added by world-renowned architect David M. Schwarz, the facility almost resembles a massive art gallery with a sports theme.

The key started with the hiring of Schwarz, who had already established a name for himself in the Metroplex by designing Fort Worth's Bass Performance Hall and the Ballpark in Arlington, home of the Texas Rangers. For American Airlines Center, Schwarz chose signature arches and a brick and limestone façade to create a nostalgic look.

The facility was destined to be an artistic masterpiece thanks to a public-art agreement with the city of Dallas before construction began. But designers more than doubled the amount of art listed in that agreement through the work of five different artists - at a total cost of $3 million for all the artwork. The art package began with the addition of 15 model plane mobiles hanging in the American Airlines Lobby (south lobby) that chronicle the history of American Airlines' fleet. Then, facility planners commissioned five artists to complete the artwork in and around the building - Vicki Scuri, Athena Tacha, David Griggs, Cork Marcheschi and Ivan Schwartz.

Scuri designed the artwork for the arches atop the facility, using 402 pieces, cast in white concrete, that cover 40,000 square feet and are etched with Xs and Os. Tacha designed the Plaza outside the south entrance, which features three fountains in the shape of spinning, seven point stars. Griggs was commissioned for the four terrazzo designs set in the flooring on the main level, Schwartz created the artwork attached to the seats on the end of each of the 2,400 rows and Marcheschi helped create the artwork incorporated into a public plaza located under the Woodall Rodgers Freeway in the West End.

Fans with disabilities will also find themselves more comfortable in the Stars' new home. An accessibility advisory committee developed a plan that provided more than 500 disabled-accessible seats, while all common areas, vendor spaces, retail stores and restaurants follow federal and state requirements. Every luxury suite is accessible as are all 20 family bathrooms.

American Airlines Center is also a leading facility nationally in the area of minority opportunities. After an agreement between team owners and the city to include at least 26 percent representation of minority contractors in building the facility, the project used what is believe to be a national-record 36.7 percent minority contractor representation - earning the operators recognition from the U.S. Department of Commerce for excellence in their minority participation programs.

FRISCO DR PEPPER STARCENTER

The Dallas Stars will have a new home for the 2003-2004 season, moving to the new Frisco Dr Pepper StarCenter next summer. It will serve as the team's new practice facility and office building.

The Frisco arena is the sixth StarCenter Dallas-based Southwest Sports Group has created in the North Texas area. Aside from serving as the training site for the Stars, the facility will also be the home to the Texas Tornado of the North American Hockey League. Like other StarCenters, it will also be used for youth, high school & adult hockey leagues, figure skating competitions, and public skating.

The 208,000 square-foot facility will include more than 12,000 square feet for the team's locker room and workout & rehabilitation area. It also will include two NHL-size sheets of ice, eight team locker rooms, an arena with approximately 3,700 seats, and a 3,500 square-foot StarsStuff store.

Construction crews broke ground on the Frisco StarCenter in May of 2002.

"The first step toward having a championship team is making sure they have the best training facility available," said Stars owner Tom Hicks. "This is going to be a state-of-the-art facility that will ensure our players will be trained to make another run for the Stanley Cup."

The Dallas Stars are one of the few teams in the NHL to design and build their own practice facility and arena. The team also sets the pace in the NHL of teams that form partnerships with communities to create public skating facilities. The Frisco Dr Pepper StarCenter is almost twice the size of other StarCenters in the Metroplex (Valley Ranch, Duncanville, Euless, and two in Plano).

"We have gone to great lengths to create the best training facility in the NHL and we will still offer the same programs in Frisco as we have at our other StarCenters," said Southwest Sports Group President & Chief Operating Officer Mike Cramer. "What makes this project unique is that it will include a first-class training facility for the Stars and house an arena for the Texas Tornado and other events."

Designed by Dallas-based HKS Sports & Entertainment Group, the StarCenter is part of a $300 million development project created by Southwest Sports Group in a partnership with the City of Frisco. When complete, it will include more than 1 million square feet of new residential, retail, office and hotel space in Frisco near Dallas North Parkway and State Highway 121. It is also the location of a new minor league baseball park for the Frisco RoughRiders, which opens its inaugural season in spring of 2003.

In addition to the ice facilities, the Frisco StarCenter will include a 12,000 square-foot Kurt Thomas gymnastics center and a 9,000 square-foot fitness center. A 1,280-car parking structure is also being constructed next to the StarCenter.

The new facility is expected to attract approximately 2 million people to visit the Frisco area on an annual basis.

The Stars are scheduled to move into their new home in July 2003. The team's original office and practice facility has been at the Valley Ranch Dr Pepper StarCenter since coming to Dallas in 1993.

DOUG ARMSTRONG
GENERAL MANAGER

Doug Armstrong begins his first full NHL season as general manager for the Dallas Stars and is entering his 12th year with the organization.

Having been apointed to the general manager position on January 25, 2002, Armstrong's first move as G.M. was a major one, dealing for forward Jason Arnott at the trading deadline last season. Armstrong also made several key moves during this past offseason, returning the Dallas Stars to an elite NHL team which will compete for the Stanley Cup this season.

Solidifying the front office and coaching staff first, Armstrong brought Francois Giguere in as his assistant general manager in January of 2002 from the two-time Stanley Cup Champion Colorado Avalanche. Armstrong then hired the team's 19th coach in franchise-history on May 16, 2002, as Dave Tippett came from the Los Angeles Kings to take over the Stars' head coaching duties. On May 22, Armstrong hired former Stars netminder Andy Moog as an assistant coach/goaltending coach for the club. Bringing back another fan favorite, Armstrong named Guy Carbonneau to the post of special assistant to the general manager on May 27. After hiring Mark Lamb as the final assistant coach on June 3, Armstrong shifted his efforts towards improving the team via free agency.

On the second day in which unrestricted free agents could sign with teams, Armstrong announced the signing of defenseman Philippe Boucher to a four-year contract on July 2. The very next day, Armstrong signed one of the biggest free agents on the market in right wing Bill Guerin to a five-year deal through the 2006-07 season. He also announced the signing of right wing Aaron Downey from the Chicago Blackhawks to a one-year deal with a club option for a second. To cap the free agency period off, Armstrong announced the signings of right wing Scott Young on July 5 and forward Ulf Dahlen on August 13.

Prior to being named the team's seventh general manager, Armstrong served nine years as the assistant general manager under Bob Gainey. As Gainey's assistant, Armstrong worked on contract information and season scheduling, and handled the day-to-day operations of the hockey department.

A native of Sarnia, Ontario, Armstrong is the son of NHL Hall of Fame linesman Neil Armstrong who was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1991.

Armstrong and his wife, Kelly, son, Blake, and daughter, Kayla, live in Coppell, TX.

FRANCOIS GIGUERE
ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Francois Giguere enters his first season with the Dallas Stars organization, coming over from the Colorado Avalanche/Quebec Nordiques where he served as vice president of hockey operations for the 2000-01 season, assistant general manager from 1995-00, administrative assistant from 1993-95 and controller in the finance department from 1990-93.

A graduate from Laval University in 1985 with the equivalent of a CPA degree, Giguere was hired to his current position in January, 2002. As Doug Armstrong's assistant, Giguere works on contract negotiations, maintains constant communication with the Utah Grizzlies hockey operations department, is responsible for developing and tracking the budget for the hockey operations department and coordinates the creation of Dallas' regular season schedule with the NHL.

Giguere, 39, his wife, Brigitte, and two children, Philippe (11) and Frederique (9) reside in Plano.

LES JACKSON
DIRECTOR OF HOCKEY OPERATIONS

Les Jackson enters the third season of his second stint with the Stars after spending the previous two years as the assistant general manager of the Atlanta Thrashers. Jackson aids in the evaluation and development of the Stars' minor league prospects. His other responsibilities include the management and development of the Stars' amateur and professional scouting program, and the evaluation of players as it relates to movement within the organization including the entry draft, trades and free agent signings.

Prior to joining the Thrashers in September of 1998, Jackson spent 13 years with the Stars' organization. Jackson, 47, served in a variety of roles, including assistant general manager from 1993-98.

Jackson's playing career included two seasons of junior hockey before the Boston Bruins drafted him in 1972. He played two seasons in the minors, then began his career as a hockey executive. His minor pro coaching career included stints in Billings, MT; Tucson, AZ; New Westminster, B.C.; Revelstoke, B.C.; and Great Falls, MT. He also spent five seasons in Brandon, Manitoba where he served as assistant coach, coach and general manager for the Western Hockey League franchise.

A native of Manning, Alberta, Jackson resides in Coppell, TX and has three children, Brock, Drake and Reid.

GUY CARBONNEAU
SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GENERAL MANAGER

Guy Carbonneau joins the Dallas Stars as their new special assistant to the general manager following his first NHL season as an assistant coach with the Montreal Canadiens.

Prior to being named to the Canadiens coaching staff on November 20, 2000, Carbonneau held the position of Supervisor of Prospect Development for Montreal for the 2000-01 season. The 18-year NHL veteran announced his retirement as a player in July 2000, following a brilliant career highlighted by three Stanley Cup Championships (1986, 1993, 1999) and three Selke trophies, awarded to the NHL's best defensive forward (1988, 1989, 1992).

The 42-year old Carbonneau, spent his first 12 seasons of his NHL career with the Canadiens from 1982-94, serving as captain from 1989-94. Currently ranking 10th on the Canadiens all-time list in regular season games played (912), he captured his first two cups with Montreal in 1986 and in 1993.

After his tenure with the Canadiens, Carbonneau played the 1994-95 season with the St. Louis Blues, before joining the Dallas Stars in a trade on October 2, 1995. In 364 regular season games with Dallas from 1995-00, he recorded 34 goals and 66 assists for 100 points. He also appeared in 63 playoff games with the Stars posting seven goals and 10 assists for 17 points. Winning his third cup with Dallas in 1999, Carbonneau participated in the playoffs in 17 of his 18 NHL seasons and currently ranks second on the NHL's all-time list with 231 career playoff games. In 1,318 career regular season contests, he collected 260 goals and 403 assists for 663 points.

Carbonneau and his wife Line have two daughters, Anne-Marie and Kristina.

DALLAS ENTERS THIRD PERIOD TRAILING OVER THREE STRAIGHT GAMES AND LOSE NONE OF THEM: For the first time in franchise-history the Dallas Stars entered the third period trailing in three straight games and came away with no losses (0-0-3). Dallas trailed on Mar. 14 at Montreal 3-1 entering the third and came back to tie 3-3, they trailed 4-3 on Mar. 16 at Toronto and came back for a 5-5 tie and then were losing 2-1 entering the third on Mar. 18 at Chicago and finished in a 2-2 tie. It marked the second time it happened in the NHL last season with Los Angeles accomplishing the feat from Nov. 18-22, 2001 (1-0-2). In club-history, the Stars had previously accomplished it in two straight games nine times with the last one coming from Oct. 9-12, 1993 (0-0-2).

DALLAS WENT UNBEATEN IN FRANCHISE-RECORD FIVE STRAIGHT GAMES WHEN BEHIND DURING SECOND PERIOD: The Dallas Stars went unbeaten in five consecutive games without losing despite trailing at one point during the second period. This was a franchise-record for the Stars as they came from behind in five-straight to earn two wins and three ties without a loss from Mar. 14-22. Dallas was the only team to have accomplished that last season. The last team to do so was Carolina, which went 2-0-3-0 in five games when trailing in the second from Nov. 24-Dec. 2, 1999.

STARS WIN WITH ONE SECOND REMAINING IN OVERTIME FOR FIRST TIME IN FRANCHISE-HISTORY: Since the inception of the five-minute overtime period in 1983-84, there has been only five teams to have won an overtime outing with one second remaining. The Dallas Stars became that fifth team when Mike Modano netted the overtime game-winner 4:59 into the extra frame on Feb. 28 at Vancouver to lift the Stars to a 4-3 victory. This was the latest goal in franchise history for the Stars in an overtime contest, breaking the previous mark set on Mar. 17, 1986 in a 6-5 win vs. St. Louis on a Dino Ciccarelli tally with 0:25 seconds remaining. Listed below are the five players who have scored an OT goal since 1983, 4:59 into the extra frame:

The five assists by Belfour this year also broke the Stars franchise-record for most helpers by a goaltender in a season. Over his six-game streak, Lehtinen recorded three-straight multi-point outings from Nov. 29-Dec. 2 for the second time in his career (also from Feb. 10-16, 1996).

MATVICHUK HAS CAREER-YEAR: As the only Dallas Star to appear in every game in '01-02, Richard Matvichuk set career-highs in games played (82), goals (9) and power play goals (4). That is a franchise-best, as the closest player to Modano is Dino Ciccarelli who collected six seasons of 70 points or more with the club. As the Stars' all-time leader in points (977 points), Modano also posted his franchise-high 11th season of 60 points earlier this year. Since the 1991-92 season, Modano has tallied 70 points or more nine times. Listed below are the most 70+ point seasons since the start of the 1991-92 season:

As the Stars' all-time leaders in goals (416 goals), Modano tallied his ninth 30+ goal season over his past 11 years. The only two seasons Modano has not collected 30 or more goals since 1991 was in the 1994-95 work stoppage-shortened year (12 goals in 30 games) and the 1997-98 season when he missed 30 games due to injury (21 goals in 52 outings). NHL Record

On October 14, 1995, the Stars set a franchise record for the fastest three goals in a game, scoring three times in 44 seconds of the final minute of the third period to cap an exciting 6-5 comeback victory over Boston at Reunion Arena. Trailing 5-3, Kevin Hatcher banged home a rebound at 19:11 of the third period to pull the Stars within one goal. At the 19:44 mark, Mike Modano fired a wrist shot past Bruins' goalie Craig Billington to even the score at 5-5. On the ensuing face-off, Mike Kennedy hustled to the corner to Billington's left, dug the puck loose and sent a centering pass to Guy Carbonneau, who fired the puck past Billington at 19:55 for the win. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, it is the only game in NHL history that a team trailed by two goals in the final minute of the game and came back to score three goals and win the game in regulation.

RETIRED NUMBERS

#7 NEAL BROTEN 1981-97

Neal Broten finished his NHL career as the most decorated player ever born in the United States. As early as high school he was a champion, taking his Roseau, MN high school to three Minnesota State High School Hockey Tournaments. He would go on to lead the University of Minnesota to the 1979 NCAA Championship and was awarded the first-ever Hobey Baker Award as the nation's top collegiate hockey player in 1981. Broten entered history in 1980 as he helped the "Miracle on Ice" U.S. Olympic team win the gold-medal. He was the last member of that squad to play in the NHL.

Broten, fittingly, scored his first career NHL goal in his first career NHL game with the Minnesota North Stars on March 31, 1981 vs. St. Louis. In his first full season, 1981-82, he was named the franchise's Rookie of the Year after setting team records that still stand for most goals, assists and points by a rookie (38-60-98). Sixteen seasons later, Broten retired as the club's all-time leader in games played (992), assists (593) and points (867) and is fourth in team annals in goals (274). The team's Most Valuable Player in 1984 and 1986, Broten participated in the NHL All-Star Game in 1983 and 1986. In that 1985-86 campaign, he became the first American-born player to record 100 points (105) and set the current club mark for assists in a season with 76. Overall, he holds or shares a total of 12 Stars records.

Moving with the team to Texas in 1993, Broten scored the first-ever goal in Dallas Stars history on October 5, 1993 against Detroit. He was dealt by the Stars to New Jersey in February of 1995, where he achieved his remaining goal. Having been to the Stanley Cup Finals twice before with the Stars (1981,1991), he played an instrumental role in the Devils' Stanley Cup victory in 1995, finishing second on that championship club with 19 points (7-12-19) in 20 playoff contests. Broten began the 1996-97 season with New Jersey, and had a brief stint with Los Angeles before the Stars reacquired him off waivers on January 28, 1997. Finishing the season with Dallas, Broten totaled 923 points for his career, the second-highest point total ever for an American-born player behind only Joe Mullen (1,063).

In June of 1996, Broten was honored with USA Hockey's Distinguished Achievement Award and in April of 1997 he was named to the All-Time USA Hockey First Team. In addition, he was selected as USA Hockey's Player of the Decade for 1976-77 to 1985-86 and in the Summer of 1997 was named a recipient of the Lester Patrick Award for outstanding service to hockey in the United States, one of only two players (Ken Morrow) to win the Award twice, having won it the first time as a member of the 1980 gold medal USA team. Broten's number seven was retired by the Stars on February 7, 1998 and he was inducted into the U.S. Hockey Hall of Fame in 2000.

#19 BILL MASTERTON 1967-68

Bill Masterton was a member of the Minnesota North Stars inaugural 1967-68 NHL team. He played two seasons of professional hockey for Hull-Ottawa of the EPHL in 1961-62 and Cleveland of the American Hockey League in 1962-63. The North Stars retired Masterton's jersey number in memory of the only professional hockey player to lose his life because of an injury suffered during an NHL game. Masterton hit the back of his head on the ice on January 13, 1968 against Oakland, and passed away two days later. The North Stars named the Bill Masterton Memorial Cup Award in his memory, presenting it to the North Stars player voted most valuable by his teammates during the season. Masterton's number 19 has never been worn by another North Star and was retired on January 17, 1987.

#8 BILL GOLDSWORTHY 1967-77

Bill Goldsworthy started his career as a North Star in 1967 when Minnesota selected him from Boston in the 1967 expansion draft. He made his name with the North Stars through goal-scoring and the invention of the Goldy Shuffle. Goldsworthy set marks throughout his career, becoming the first player from a post-1967 team to score 200 goals and the first to score 250. In 1971, Goldsworthy became the team's leading scorer and goal scorer, a mark he held for over a decade. His 48-goal season in 1973-74 was the best ever by a North Star until 1981-82 and he averaged over 30 goals a year during his Stars career. In 1976, Goldsworthy became the first North Star ever to reach the 500-point plateau. In 670 games with Minnesota, he totalled 267 goals, 239 assists for 506 points. Goldsworthy's number eight was retired on February 15, 1992.

EARLY DALLAS HOCKEY HISTORY

Many people do not realize that the roots of professional hockey in Dallas date back to the fall of 1941. It was a strange and unusual site, as the Fair Park Ice Arena welcomed the sport from the North to the citizens of Dallas for the first time. Advertised in the papers as "The most dangerous game in the world...murder on ice, it has been called...with playing speed, flashing blades and crashing bodies," the lights came up on a debut unlike any other.

In the spring of 1941, Clarence E. Linz announced his team, the Texans, would be starting play the next year, joining the American Hockey Association along with a candidate from Fort Worth. As President of Ice Sports, Inc, Linz would become instrumental in not only creating the Texans, but later, bringing in ice shows, including the famous Sonja Henie Ice Show, to the State Fair each fall.

1946-47 DALLAS TEXANS

Taking the helm of the Texans in their inaugural year would be player/coach Leroy "Goldie" Goldsworthy. A former National Hockey League player, he spent nine seasons in the big leagues, scoring 123 total points off of 66 goals and 57 assists while playing for the New York Rangers, Detroit Red Wings, Chicago Blackhawks, Montreal Canadiens, Boston Bruins and New York Americans. It was through his many years with the NHL that he hoped to be able to find players with experience who could help him in his new endeavor.

Of the original team, only Paul Runge and Pete Palangio had seen time in the NHL, with Paul playing from 1930 to 1938 with Boston, the Montreal Maroons and the Montreal Canadiens while Pete suited up for the Canadiens, Red Wings and Blackhawks from 1926 to 1938.

On November 6, 1941, hockey made its debut in Dallas with the first of 50 games, 25 at home. Fans could get in the game for the mere general admission price of 55 cents. Three thousand reserve seats were available from 80 cents up to $1.20, while boxes and rinkside seats would run you anywhere from $1.65 to $2.25.

Opening night was truly a spectacular gala. With World War II raging, Linz made the decision that 50% of the proceeds would be donated to the United China Relief Fund. Organized by Mrs. William M. Lingo, Jr. and the Dallas Club women, they hoped to raise $2,500 during the evening with Chinese candies and cakes sold by girls in Chinese costumes during the game. First time patrons to hockey, must surely have been somewhat confused by the multi-cultural surroundings of this strange sport.

Matching up against the St. Paul Saints in their inaugural game, the Texans played in front of a near capacity crowd of 4,273. Tony Licari scored the team's first goal, but the Saints, behind three power play goals, stole the home team's thunder by winning the game 4-1. George Higgins, President of the American Hockey Association, pronounced the game a success and was pleased with the condition of the arena and the number of spectators.

The season continued with Dallas fighting, many times literally, for a playoff spot. Going into the final night of the season, Dallas remained one point ahead of Tulsa for the final playoff spot. The Texans had been clinging to a three point lead, only to see it evaporate after a 4-2 loss to St. Paul in front of 2,500 fans on honorary newspaper boy night. Dallas would go home early in their inaugural year, losing out on the money to be made in the postseason. In the playoffs, the major share of the gate receipts went directly to the players.

It would be the last time many of these men would come to Dallas. The horrors of World War II and the continued involvement of the United States and Canada forced the cancellation of hockey in the south and meant the end of the American Hockey Association.

Dallas would not see hockey again for four years.

Hockey was back in "Big D" for the 1945-46 season, as Linz once again brought the Texans to life, this time joining the Kansas City Pla-mors, Omaha Knights, St. Paul Saints, Tulsa Oilers, Fort Worth Rangers and Minneapolis Millers in the United States Hockey League.

The fight to make the Texans had been tough as those who were cut would go to Eastern League teams where the salaries were nearly one-half of those in the USHL.

On October 10, 1945, Linz announced Leroy Goldsworthy would return as coach and introduced the team's first player, 20-year-old goaltender Al Picard. Goldsworthy rated the youngster so highly, he expected to sell him at the end of the season to an NHL club.

With Roy McBride the oldest man on the team at 24, many of the players ranged in age from 17 to 20. Only Lloyd Finkbeiner had seen action in the NHL, playing one game with the New York Americans in 1940-41 and going scoreless, while only Hugh Currie ever would in the future. During the 1950-51 season, he played in one game for Montreal, going scoreless.

Opening night brought a crowd of 4,300. Fans were able to purchase their rinkside seats for a mere $2.00 while others ranged from $1.00 to $1.50 with general admission at 70 cents. It was an exciting and hard fought contest as the home favorites beat Tulsa 5-3, having been led by Lou Smrke who tallied a hat trick with three goals.

The heroics and joy of opening night were short-lived. The 1945-46 season proved to be a roller-coaster ride of ups and downs. At the end of February, the Texans set a new league record of two consecutive losses by the largest margin, having been defeated by Kansas City 13-1 and then Tulsa 12-1. In their next two games, the club set a new league record for two consecutive wins by the largest margin, beating both Kansas City and Minneapolis 10-2. Such was the '45-46 season.

The rivalry with Fort Worth continued as former Texan Paul Runge now coached the Rangers. The two teams met for the last time on March 13 in front of 4,204 people in Fort Worth and played to a 3-3 tie. New goalie Nick Pidsodny stopped 50 shots on the night, including 11 in the 10 minute overtime.

The season ended on March 19, 1946. The Dallas Morning News announced this as "the biggest hockey season this city has ever had." In the final game, the Texans faced league leader Kansas City in front of a near capacity crowd of 5,000. It was rumored that the Pla-mors wanted to run up the score to show their dominance heading into the postseason. The home town team caught wind of this plan and set out to foil it. Playing what the paper called, "the fastest and most rugged athletic competition ever unreeled on a local battlefield," the Texans gave Kansas City a 5-1 lashing.

The 1946-47 team brought in new players as well as a new coach while the league accepted a new team - the Houston Huskies. George Boothman was signed on to take the helm for Dallas as well as play center for the club after captaining the Buffalo Bisons to the AHL Championship in 1946.

The Texans proved to be one of the strongest in the USHL that year. After winning their opener on October 24, 8-4, over Tulsa, behind John MacKenzie's two goals in 20 seconds, they came back and defeated Omaha, 2-1, in front of 4,100 fans to jump into first place.

First place is where they remained throughout the season. Despite the replacement of Murray Armstrong for George Boothman as player/coach, the team finished on top of the Southern Division with a 27-18-15 record and 69 points.

In the post-season, Dallas entered as the top team in the Southern Division, but due to the scheduling format, was forced to play the best team in the league, the Omaha Knights, who had a 29-16-15 record. The Texans dropped the series to Omaha in six contests.

With the start of 1947-48 season, a few changes were in store for the league and in particular the Texans. Jim Hendy took over as the new President of the USHL while on the local scene, Lex Cook took over coaching duties for the Dallas club.

Another difference for the Texans was their agreement to be for the first time a farm team for the powerful Montreal Canadiens of the NHL. Despite this seemingly quality improvement though, the Texans were in for a rough year.

Points would come hard for the Texans as they finished with the worst record in the league that season at 21-39-6 for only 48 points. Leading scorer for the club was Gord Petrie with 62 points off of 13 goals and 49 assists while Nick Pidsodny was the top netminder on the team with a 4.18 GAA, 10th in the league. For the season-ending All Star squad, Jake Milford, a player/assistant coach for the Texans, was the only member named, earning a spot on the First Team.

The Texans inter-state rival from Houston took home the Paul W. Loudon Trophy as league champions, defeating Minneapolis three games to two.

Things could only get better for the local team when the 1948-49 campaign opened. Lex Cook was returning as coach of the Texans with the Montreal Canadiens still providing some exciting skaters to stock the club.

A bright, new addition to the team was Joe Bell, who was sent down from Montreal after playing parts of two years with the New York Rangers in the NHL. In his 62 games in the big-time, he had totaled 17 points (8-9-17). Also, coming to Dallas was the fiery goaltender Paul Bibeault. In his seven seasons in the NHL from 1940 to 1947, he recorded 3.65 goals against average while playing in a combined 297 games for Montreal, Toronto, Boston and Chicago.

Introduced to members of the media by officials of the Ice Cycles of 1948, an exhibit at the Texas State Fair, the team also featured newcomers George Bougie, Jimmy Moore and a young kid name Howie Morenz, Jr. - the son of the Hall of Famer who played with Montreal, Chicago and New York from 1923 to 1937.

With the season starting, the Texans were one of the youngest clubs on the circuit, featuring no less than six players making their professional debuts. Because of this, coach Cook pleaded with the Canadiens to send down some help for the home opener. Montreal responded with Roger Leger, Todd Campeau, Jacques Richard and Jimmy Galbraith. Leger, who played with Montreal the previous season when they went to the Stanley Cup Finals, volunteered to go to Dallas so he could take off some of the weight he had acquired over the off-season.

By the time the Texans rolled into town for their home-opener, they were already in last place with a 1-3-1 record. Squee Allen was now suffering from a broken leg and was out. And netminder Bibeault, who was called "belligerent" by the local media, was leading the league, in of all things, penalty minutes and, prior to their home game with St. Paul, was stricken with Pleurisy and wasn't able to suit up.

But Lex Cook's prophesies that "once this young team gets their feet wet, they'll be something," began to come true. By season's end, the Texans had surged into second place in the Southern Division, finishing with a 24-27-15 record with 63 points. Gordie Petrie once again led the team in points, finishing fifth in the league with 24-57-81. Joe Bell (37-38-75) and Dennis Filion (22-38-60) also ended among league leaders, while Bibeault recorded a 3.78 goals-against average with two shutouts. He would end up winning both the Herman W. Peterson Cup for Most Valuable Player and the Charles Gardiner Memorial Trophy as the USHL's best goaltender.

Named to the season-end All Star Team were Bibeault, as the First Team goalie, and Tom Rockey, the USHL's leading defenseman scorer, and Joe Bell as Second Team All-Stars.

In the playoffs, the Texans faced off on March 22, 1949 against their rivals from Fort Worth in their best two out of three quarterfinal series. The Rangers had won six of their last seven going into the post-season while Dallas had lost five of their last seven.

Roles would be reversed, however. Behind Joe Bell's hat trick and the outstanding play of Bibeault in net, Dallas handed Fort Worth an 8-0 loss in the opening game in front of 4,000 fans. The shutout was the first in USHL playoff history, proving to doubters that the feisty netminder deserved his regular season awards.

After winning the second game 5-3, Dallas moved on to Tulsa in the semi-finals who were the Southern Division champs during the regular season. The Oilers quickly disposed of the upstart Texans, knocking them off 4-1 in both games to move into the finals. It was the St. Paul Saints, winners of the Northern Division with 82 points, who took home the title though, defeating Tulsa four games to one.

The end of the 1948-49 season brought the end of professional hockey to the Dallas area. Due to increased travel costs, Dallas, Fort Worth and Houston all dropped out of the USHL. The league would thrive for two more seasons, adding teams from Louisville, Milwaukee and Denver, before finally bowing out all together after the 1950-51 campaign.

Upon their withdrawal from the USHL, the three Texas teams made plans to form an new league, along with Wichita, called the Texas Hockey Association. Chrys Kelly of Dallas was to serve as President with the league expanding into places like San Antonio, Shreveport and New Orleans by 1950. The new organization, though, failed to materialize, leaving Dallas without professional hockey for the next 18 years.

Before the Stars arrived in Dallas for the 1993-94 season, the Central Hockey League operated a team in Dallas from 1967-1982 called the Dallas Blackhawks, a minor league affiliate of the Chicago Blackhawks. The CHL returned for two seasons in 1992-93 and 1993-94 with the Dallas Freeze before that club ceased operations.

PLAYOFF FORMAT

The National Hockey League's 30 clubs are aligned into two conferences, each consisting of three divisions. Sixteen teams will qualify for the 2003 Stanley Cup Playoffs.

First-round playoff berths will be awarded to the first-place team in each division, as well as to the next five-best teams (based on regular-season point totals in each conference). The three division winners in each conference will be seeded first through third (in order of points) and the next five-best teams (in order of points) will be seeded fourth through eighth. In each conference, the team seeded #1 will play the team seeded #8; #2 vs. #7; #3 vs. #6 and #4 vs. #5 in the Conference Quarterfinal round. Home-ice in the Conference Quarterfinals is granted to those teams seeded first through fourth in each conference.

In the Conference Semifinals and Conference Finals, teams will be re-seeded according to the same criteria as the Conference Quarterfinals (division leaders will be seeded first and granted home-ice advantage while the remaining teams will be seeded in order of regular-season points).

Home-ice advantage in the Stanley Cup series will be determined by points. All series are best-of-seven.

DETERMINING PENALTY KILLING PERCENTAGE: Subtract total number of power play goals allowed from total number of shorthanded situations to get total number of power plays killed. Divide total number of power plays killed by total number of shorthanded situations.

DETERMINING A PLAYER'S OR TEAM'S SHOOTING PERCENTAGE: Divide total goals scored by total number shots taken.

PLUS-MINUS: A player receives a "plus" if he is on the ice when his team scores an even-strength or shorthanded goal. He receives a "minus" if he is on the ice for an even-strength or shorthanded goal scored by the opposing team. The difference in these numbers is considered the player's plus-minus statistic.

SHOT ON GOAL: If a player shoots the puck with the intention of scoring and if that shot would have gone in the net had the goaltender not stopped it, the shot is recorded as a "shot on goal".

GAME-WINNING GOAL: The goal that gives the winning team one more goal than the losing team.

GAME-TYING GOAL: The last goal of a tie game.

CONSECUTIVE GAME, GOAL, ASSIST, POINT-SCORING STREAK: In addition to being discounted whenever a player fails to record the goal or assist needed to extend a streak in a given game, the streak shall be terminated whenever the player fails to appear in a game.

TENTHS OF A SECOND: If a penalty or goal occurs in the last minute, the time is rounded off to the previous second (ex: if a goal is scored with 12.4 seconds left in a period, the time is indicated as 19:47).

ROOKIE STATUS: A player shall be considered a rookie if he has not played in 25 or more games during any single preceding season, or not in six or more games during any two preceding seasons.

ROSTER LIMITS: Each team dresses 18 skaters (generally 12 forwards and six defensemen) and two goaltenders per game. A team may carry up to 23 players at a time.

TRADING DEADLINE: 2:00 CST of the 26th day before the final day of the NHL regular season marks the deadline for trades between NHL teams. This date also marks the deadline for loans and recalls from minor league teams. This season's deadline falls on March 11.

TIE BREAKING PROCEDURES: In the event of a tie in standing points, these steps determine which team shall finish in the higher position: 1) Most wins, 2) Most points earned in season series between the two tied teams (points earned in the first game played in the city that has the extra game shall not be included), 3) Differential in total goals scored and total goals allowed over full 82-game schedule.

STARS IN THE COMMUNITY

The Dallas Stars take great pride in their accomplishments on the ice, but are just as proud of their off-ice efforts to make our community a better place to live. The Stars support charitable programs that enhance the lives of our youth and serve other members of the Dallas/Ft. Worth Metroplex.

NHL StreetStars
This off-ice league-wide initiative provides youth with an inexpensive recreational alternative while cultivating a new generation of hockey playing fans. StreetStars, which currently operates in 28 centers in the Metroplex, allows over 1,400 children to learn and practice street hockey skills, play in organized games and receive playbooks designed to reinforce the rules of the game. Each StreetStars annual season culminates with the Metroplex Championships in the spring.

Stars I.C.E.
Debuting in August 2002, the Stars I.C.E. (Inner-City Experience) program allows children in low-income, at-risk areas of the Metroplex to experience the excitement of ice hockey. With support from American Airlines Center Foundation, two hundred children from throughout the area participate in a day of skating andhockey at Dr Pepper StarCenters and have the opportunity to apply for scholarships t further their hockey instruction. The program emphasizes the importance of working towards goals and beleiving in themselves.

Hope for the Holidays
During the holidays, the Dallas Stars and Texas Rangers hold a baby care item drive benefitting Captian Hope's Kids. Items such as diapers, baby clothes and blankets are collected in November and December, and distributed to homeless infants and toddlers throughout the Metroplex.

Hospital Visits
The Stars strive to bring hope and happiness to families in need, particularly during the holiday season. The Stars players visit Children's Medical Center of Dallas and Cook Children's Hospital in Fort Worth each year to sign autographs and take photos with the kids.

Darryl Sydor does arts and crafts with young patients during the team's holiday hospital visits.

Dallas Stars Foundation

The Dallas Stars Foundation was established to serve as a positive force throughout the Dallas/Ft Worth Metroplex. The Foundation focuses its efforts on providing support to children of the community so they may lead quality lives and develop into contributing members of society. Through teamwork, interaction, and education, the Dallas Stars Foundation works to bring together all members of the Metroplex and build a bright future for today's youth. Foundation events and programs include the following:

Grants and Scholarships
Twice each season, the Dallas Stars Foundation makes monetary grants to local children's charities in support of a variety of programs. In the past three years, the Foundation has donated almost $1.2 million in grants. The Foundation annually awards Jr. Stars and Star Champions Scholarships to young hockey players and figure skaters who train at Dr. Pepper StarCenters. This year the Foundation is also introducing the Bob Gainey Honorary Scholarship, which will be awarded to a very deserving Metroplex high school senior each spring based on his/her academic perfomrance, community involvement and finacial need.

Dallas Stars Bonnie Blair Golf Classic presented by United Service Association for Health Care
In October 2002, the Stars will host the 6th Annual Dallas Stars Bonnie Blair Golf Classic cohosted by former Stars General Manager Bob Gainey and Olympic gold medalist Bonnie Blair. Dallas-area golfers have the chance to hit the links with their favorite Stars players and Olympic champions. The two-day event includes a pre-tournament dinner, and Stars game, and the golf tournament and post-tournament awards baquet. Poceeds benefit the Dallas Stars Foundation and American Brain Tumor Association.

Wyndham Anatole/Dallas Stars Face-Off Luncheon
The Stars officially began their season with the Face-Off Luncheon held at the The Wyndham Anatole Hotel in Dallas on September 30, 2002. Attendees were given the opportunity to dine with the Stars players and coaches, while the Stars broadcast team provided the entertaining player interviews.

10th Annual Baylor Health Care System Skate With the Strars
The 10th Annual Skate With the Stars is tentatively set for December 2002 at American Airlines Center. Each year over 1,200 fans gather to lace up their skates and take the ice with the Stars players. Other features include autographs, photos, with select players, and a buffet provided by various local restaurants.

Park Place/Dallas Stars Casino Night
In January 2003, the Stars will hold their 6th Annual Park Place/Dallas Stars Casino Night, which is an evening of fun and elegance featuring the Stars players as guest casino dealers. The event also includes autographs and photos with the players, a cocktail buffet courtesy of Maggiano's Little Italy, spectacular live and silent auctions and great casino prizes.

Stick With Reading spokesman Marty Turco visits a local classroom and encourages the students to keep reading!

Dallas Stars/Texas Rangers Charitiy Calander
For the 3rd consecutive year, the Stars and Rangers will team up to produce a charity calender. This year's calender will feature Stars and Rangers players with their pets, and proceeds will benefit the SPCA as well as the teams' foundations. The teams are also tentatively planning a "pets in the park" family event at The Ballpark with Stars and Rangers players and their pets to be held in November 2002.

Stick With Reading
In an effort to combat the problem of illiteracy, the Foundation has developed the Stick With Reading program. Since the program's inception in 1998, over 97,000 Metroplex students have participated in the program, which gives children the chance to win incentive prizes and a visit from a Stars player by recording their extracurricular reading over a six-week period.

StarSchool

Stars of Tomorrow Educational Tour Program
This program provides elementary and middle school classrooms the chance to take an educational tour at Dr Pepper StarCenter in Valley Ranch and receive a 30-minute ice skating session. The students are then encouraged to write essays about their experience at Dr Pepper StarCenter. Twice annually, winning essays are chosen and the winners receive Stars tickets or U.S. Savings Bonds.

Newspapers in Education
In conjunction with the Dallas Morning News, the Foundation sponsors a Newspapers in Education Character Education supplement. Using the Dallas Stars players as examples, this curriculum addresses such topics as loyalty, altruism, self-discipline, honesty, and contentment. Over 10,000 students participated in the program last year.

High School Media Day
Each year, high school journalism students are invited to take a tour of the practice facility, enjoy lunch, watch a Stars practice and take part in a question and answer session with members of the local media and select Stars players. The students then return to their schools and write articles on the experience for their school newspapers. The Stars select a winning article, the author of which is invited to sit in the American Airlines Center pressbox during a Stars game.

Donate-A-Skate
In 2002-2003, the Dallas Stars Foundation will begin the Donate-A-Skate program, through which free skate parties will be donated to qualified charity organizations. Each month one charity will be chosen, and their representatives, volunteers and service recipients will be invited to enjoy skating at a Metroplex Dr Pepper StarCenter complete with refreshments and Stars goodies.

Tickets for Kids
Season ticket holders are encouraged to return to the Stars any game tickets they are unable to use. The Dallas Stars Foundation then donates them to sick or underprivileged children who would otherwise be unable to attend Stars games. Hundreds of children have been able to enjoy Stars games through this program over the last several seasons.

SPORTS MEDICINE GLOSSARY

AC Joint (Acromioclavicular joint): Joint of the shoulder where acromion process of the shoulder blade and the distal end of the collarbone meet; most shoulder separations occur at this joint.

Anterior Cruciate Ligament (ACL): A primary stabilizing ligament within the center of the knee joint that prevents hyperextension and excessive rotation of the joint. A complete tear of the ACL necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months rehabilitation.

Arthroscope: An instrument used to visualize the interior of a joint cavity.

Cartilage: Smooth, slippery substance preventing two ends of bones from rubbing together and grating. Most joints use this to cover bones next to each other. A meniscus is made of cartilage.

CAT Scan (Computerized Tomography): Use of a computer to produce a cross sectional view of the anatomical part being investigated from x-ray data.

Concussion: Jarring injury of the brain resulting in dysfunction. It can be graded as mild, moderate or severe, depending on loss of consciousness, amnesia and loss of equilibrium.

Contusion: An injury to a muscle and tissues caused by a blow from a blunt object.

Dislocation: Complete displacement of joint surfaces.

Fracture: Breach in continuity of a bone. Types of fractures include simple, compound, comminuted, greenstick, incomplete, impacted, longitudinal, oblique, stress, or transverse.

Grade One Injury: A mild injury in which ligament, tendon or other musculoskeletal tissue may have been stretched but not torn or otherwise disrupted.

Grade Two Injury: A moderate injury in which musculoskeletal tissue has been partially, but not totally torn, causing appreciable limitation in function of the injured tissue.

Grade Three Injury: A severe injury in which tissue loss has been significant, and in many cases, totally torn or otherwise disrupted, causing a virtual loss of function.

Hematoma: Mass produced by an accumulation of coagulated blood in a cavity or in soft tissues.

Inflammation: The body's natural response to injury in which the injury site might display various degrees of pain, swelling, heat, redness and /or loss of function.

Lateral Collateral Ligament (LCL): Ligament of the knee along the outer aspect that connects the femur to the fibula. It provides lateral stability to the joint.

Ligament: Band of fibrous tissue that connects bone to bone or bone to cartilage and supports and strengthens joints.

Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI): Imaging procedure in which a radio frequency pulse causes certain electrical elements of the injured tissue to react to this pulse and through this process a computer display and permanent film establish a visual image. MRI does not require radiation and is very useful in the diagnosis of soft tissue, disc and meniscus injuries.

Medial Collateral Ligament (MCL): Ligament of knee along the inner aspect that connects the femur to the tibia.

Meniscus: Crescent shaped cartilage, usually pertaining to the knee joint; also known as cartilage. There are two menisci in the knee, medial and lateral. These work to absorb weight within the knee and provide stability.

Sciatica: Irritation of the sciatic nerve resulting in pain or tingling running down the inside of the leg.

Sciatic Nerve: Major nerve that carries impulses for muscular action and sensations between the low back and thigh and lower leg; it is the longest nerve in the body.

Sprain: A joint injury to a ligament(s). A violent twisting, stretching, pulling or tearing of a ligament. 1st Degree - a stretching but no tear of a ligament. Athlete may be able to continue to play or usually return to play in a few days. 2nd Degree - A partial tear of a ligament. Bracing may be required. Athlete will usually miss one to four weeks. 3rd Degree - A complete tear of a ligament. Depending upon ligament involved, bracing or even surgery may be required. Athlete is usually out from three weeks up to twelve months depending upon course of treatment.

Strain: A muscle injury. The stretching, pulling or twisting of a muscle or tendon. 1st Degree - A stretching but no tear of a muscle or tendon. Athlete may be able to continue to play or usually return to play in a few days. 2nd Degree - A partial tear of a muscle or tendon. Athlete will usually miss one to four weeks. 3rd Degree - A complete tear of a muscle or tendon. Depending upon muscle or tendon involved, bracing or even surgery may be required. Athlete is usually out from three weeks up to twelve months depending upon course of treatment.

Subluxation: Partial dislocation of a joint. The term usually implies that the joint can return to a normal position without formal reduction.

Tendinitis: Inflammation of the tendon and/or tendon sheath, caused by chronic overuse or sudden injury.
